

Affiliation is Open

The National Affiliation is officially open for the new school year as of August 1. Please click here to access the site. If you need help with chapter numbers, etc., please contact me. Attached to this email are step-by-step affiliation instructions to guide you through the process of updating chapter information, graduating students (up a grade, or out of high school), etc. Please take a moment to look through these instructions.

Get to Know FCCLA Activities

National FCCLA has provided some fun activities and resources to help you spread the word about FCCLA to your students and school. These include items such as a webquest for students to become more familiar, recruitment video/brochure, a "Why FCCLA" one-page flyer, a customizable letter to parents, and suggestions for discussing FCCLA with your administration. To access these items and many more, visit the national office's website here.

Additional resources on the national website for advisers can be found here.

2017 Oregon CTSO Adviser Conference

FCCLA advisers are encouraged to attend this one-day conference in September. Registration is free, but preregistration is required. This is a great time to network with other advisers, get prepared for the year ahead in FCCLA, and a prime time to get accurate information for this coming year! The new Chapter Success Guides are also provided first to conference attendees.

The conference will be held on Friday, September 15 at the Red Lion on the River Hotel in Jantzen Beach. To register for this event, please click HERE. Registration by September 5 is required.

2017-2018 Calendar of Events

We have several exciting conferences and activities headed your way this school year! Be sure to check out the Calendar of Events for dates and start planning today!

National Leadership Conference Recap

We are excited to report that Oregon FCCLA had a successful week at the 2017 National Leadership Conference in Nashville! Of the 15 students that competed in STAR events, Oregon FCCLA returned with 8 gold medals and 7 silver medals! Way to go Oregon FCCLA!

Website Updates

The Oregon FCCLA website (www.oregonfccla.org) is packed with information and resources to help make your year in FCCLA a success! The website is continually being updated. Please remember to check the website often for important information and upcoming events.
