WORKSHOPS

Cover Letters and Resumes: Getting Started, Kyle Kavas, President of UPLIFT Leadership

It's hard to write a resume and cover letter when you have little-to-no work experience. Learn how to showcase your skills and leverage other leadership experiences like Oregon FCCLA.

Navigating the Process, Candice Freedman, Registrar | Portland Fashion Institute

Learn from someone on the inside how to navigate the post-secondary application process. Learn specifically about the opportunities at Portland Fashion Institute (PFI), about their certification programs, and hands-on courses just to take for fun! PFI is a private, nonprofit nationally accredited career Institute of higher learning.

Be the Superhero of Your Chapter, State Officers

Learn how to be a better leader, stay organized, recruit new members, and recognize chapter members.

DRESS CODE

FCCLA members and advisers are representing an outstanding student organization and should project the image of a leader. Students, advisers and guests should adhere to the mandatory dress policy listed below at all state and national meetings. Advisers are responsible for enforcing the dress code with their students. Anyone not adhering to the dress policy will not be admitted to sessions.

It should be noted that the official FCCLA uniform is always acceptable and encouraged for members during FCCLA events. Students may select the attire that best fits the gender with which they identify. This is a personal choice as long as the FCCLA guidelines are followed.

FCCLA CEREMONIES

OPENING CEREMONY

President: We are members of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. Our mission is to promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences education.

Chapter, State and National Officers: Focusing on the multiple roles of family members, wage earners, and community leaders, members develop skills for life through character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communication, practical knowledge, and career preparation.

Members: As we work toward the accomplishment of our goals, we learn cooperation, take responsibility, develop leadership, and give service.

CLOSING CEREMONY

President: Members, please stand. FCCLA members, we are challenged to accept the responsibility of making decisions that affect our lives today and the world tomorrow. Let us repeat the Creed.

Members:

We are the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America,
 We face the future with warm courage and high hope.
 For we have the clear consciousness of seeking old and precious values.
 For we are builders of homes.
 Homes for America's future.
 Homes where living will be the expression of everything that is good and fair,
 Homes where truth and love and security and faith are realities, not dreams.

We are the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. We face the future with warm courage and high hope.
