ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

OREGON
STATE ASSOCIATION

National Level

The national organization Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, Inc. (FCCLA), office is located in Herndon, Virginia. Leadership is provided by national officers, the board of directors, and the national professional staff. The leadership, through the national headquarters office, gives direction to a national public relations program, supplies national publications, recommends programs for decision-making and personal growth, and provides pre and in-service training for advisers. The National Executive Council serves the membership as the youth decision-making body. The National Board of Directors serves the membership through representation of all phases of family and consumer sciences education. The national level of FCCLA includes every member of FCCLA in all 50 states, Washington, DC, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and Guam.

A copy of the national bylaws can be found on the national website:
https://fcclainc.org/about/governance

National Regions Level

The national organization is divided into four regions: Central, North Atlantic, Pacific, and Southern. Washington is in the Pacific region.

State Level

The Oregon Association of FCCLA consists of local chapters within the state. Governance of the organization is student-led by the State Executive Council and a Board of Directors. The members of the board represent Career and Technical Education (CTE), school leadership, FCCLA advisers, Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) teachers, FCCLA State President, and FCS-related business and industry partners. The day to day management of the state association is managed through TEAMTRI, the Oregon State Adviser, and State Staff.

The executive council and state association develop and implement a state program of work and provide leadership for the Oregon State Leadership Conference in the spring. They serve as an important link between the national and local levels.

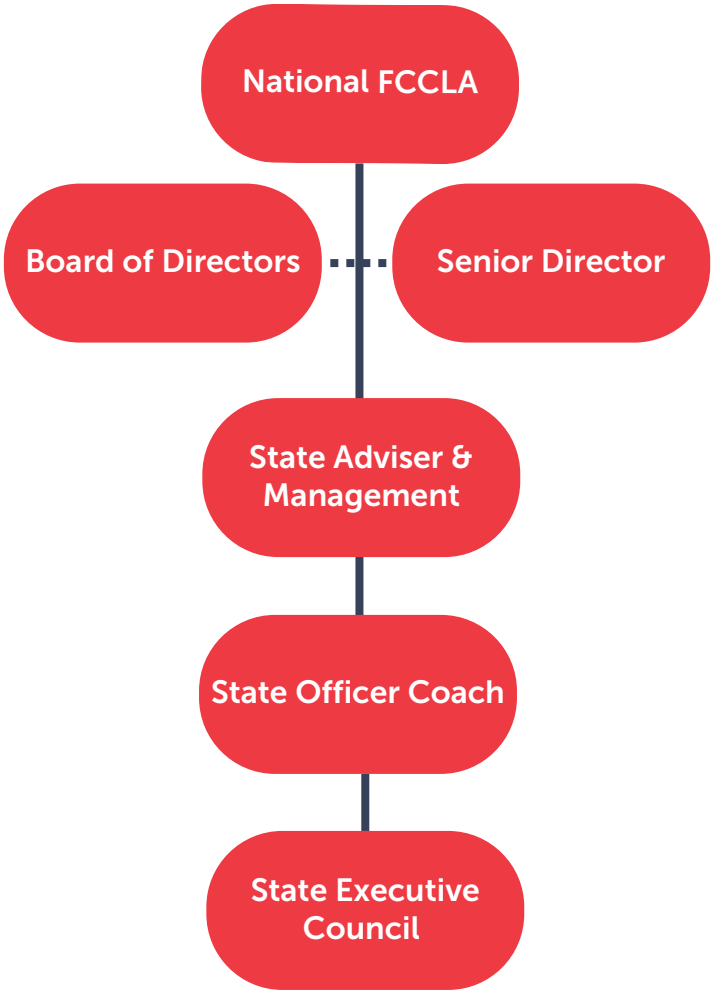

A copy of the state level bylaws can be found on the Oregon FCCLA Resources TeachCTSO platfom.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

Local Level

FCCLA chapters address preparation for those careers with recognition that workers fill multiple roles as family and community members as well as employees. The local chapters of FCCLA are made up of students who have taken or are taking a course in FCS. The FCS teacher serves as the adviser.

NEW ADVISER GETTING STARTED

Everything You Need to Start a Successful FCCLA Chapter

Affiliating your FCCLA chapter is a critical first step to unlocking a year of leadership development, classroom integration, and student achievement—and we are here to make that process simple and stress-free.

This page is your central hub for all things affiliation. Whether you are starting a brand-new chapter or preparing for another year with returning members, you will find all the tools, templates, and guidance you need right here. Resources include:

- Printable checklists to help you track tasks and deadlines
- Detailed instructions for navigating the FCCLA Portal
- Member info forms to collect everything needed for entry
- Bulk upload templates for efficient student affiliation
- Tutorial videos that walk you through the process step by step

Each resource is designed to help you stay organized, meet deadlines, and make the most of your FCCLA experience from day one. This page is regularly updated to reflect the current affiliation year—so you can always count on it for the most accurate and helpful tools available.

Whether you are leading a small chapter or managing a large one across multiple classes, FCCLA's affiliation support is built with your time, your classroom, and your students in mind.

Your Adviser Kit Includes:

Step-by-Step Affiliation Instructions

- A detailed walkthrough that shows you how to log into the FCCLA Portal, select your affiliation option (type or package), and complete your submission accurately.

Adviser Checklist

- A printable checklist to help you monitor deadlines, complete tasks, and ensure your chapter meets all annual benchmarks.

Member Checklist

- A simple tool for students to track their progress and responsibilities—ideal for classroom integration and project planning.

Member Affiliation Info Form (PDF)

- Use these forms to gather all necessary student details before entering data into the FCCLA Portal. This step helps avoid duplication and ensures accuracy during entry.

Access your kit at: https://fcclainc.org/join/chapter-affiliation/affiliation-resources or in the Oregon FCCLA TeachCTSO platform under 'Membership & Affiliation.'

FCCLA INFORMATION & FACTS

About FCCLA

Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America is a nonprofit national career and technical student organization for young men and women in Family and Consumer Sciences education in public and private schools through grade 12 as well as some post-secondary chapters. Everyone is part of a family and FCCLA is the only national Career and Technical Student Organization with the family as its central focus. Since 1945, FCCLA members have been making a difference in their families, careers and communities by addressing important personal, work and societal issues through Family and Consumer Sciences education.

Involvement in FCCLA offers members the opportunity to expand their leadership potential and develop skills for life -- planning, goal setting, problem solving, decision making and interpersonal communication -- necessary in the home and workplace.

Mission

To promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences education. Focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner and community leader, members develop skills for life through character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communication, practical knowledge and career preparation.

Motto

Toward New Horizons

Colors

The official colors of FCCLA are red and white. Red suggests strength, courage and determination; personal qualities leading to happiness through a positive self-image. White symbolizes sincerity of purpose and integrity of action; qualities that will help individuals build a better tomorrow.

State Branding

FCCLA Purposes

1. To provide opportunities for personal development and preparation for adult life.
2. To strengthen the function of the family as a basic unit of society.
3. To encourage democracy through cooperative action in the home and community.
4. To encourage individual and group involvement in helping achieve global cooperation and harmony.
5. To promote greater understanding between youth and adults.
6. To provide opportunities for making decisions and for assuming responsibilities.
7. To prepare for the multiple roles of men and women in today's society.
8. To promote Family and Consumer Sciences and related occupations.

EVENTS & OPPORTUNITIES

Be a Teacher Day™ - October 8, 2026 - https://www.beateacherday.org
Be a Teacher Day™ is a nationwide initiative that empowers students to explore the teaching profession and discover meaningful careers in education.

Academy for Chapter Excellence & Adviser Conference – October 8-10, 2026 – Ashland, OR Join us at the Oregon Career & Technical Student Organizations (CTSO) for the Academy for Chapter Excellence (ACE), October 8–10, 2026, at the Ashland Hills Hotel & Suites in Ashland, Oregon.
This dynamic event brings together chapter officers and advisors for leadership training, professional development sessions, advisor-focused workshops, and valuable industry networking opportunities. With affordable registration, scholarships available, and free advisor attendance with student registration, ACE is designed to strengthen chapter leadership and elevate CTE and CTSO success statewide.

National Fall Leadership Institute #1 – October 17-20, 2026 – Orlando, FL
National Fall Leadership Institute #2 – November 12-15, 2026 – Anaheim, CA
In fall 2026, FCCLA will host the third annual Fall Leadership Institutes in two dynamic locations across the country. In partnership with Disney Imagination Campus in Anaheim and Orlando, this exclusive experience features Disney-led sessions focused on leadership, teamwork, creativity, and innovation—hosted right inside the parks.

Participants build real-world skills in small, interactive learning groups while experiencing the energy and creativity that make Disney a global leader in innovation and guest experience.

Chapter Adviser Summit – January 13-17, 2027 – San Antonio, TX
The FCCLA Chapter Adviser Summit (CAS) provides professional development opportunities designed specifically for Family and Consumer Sciences education teachers looking to excel in the classroom and in FCCLA. The CAS is developed and led by FCCLA's National Staff and the National Consultant Team. Attendees will receive up-to-date professional development training, share ideas, and network with other chapter advisers from across the nation.

State Leadership Conference (SLC) – April 2-3, 2027 – Roseburg, OR Don't miss out on the culminating event of the year for Oregon FCCLA—State Leadership Conference! Take part in STAR Events, attend workshops, network with members, elect the 2027-2028 State Executive Council, and so much more.

National Leadership Conference (NLC) – June 22-26, 2027 – San Antonio, TX
While at NLC, FCCLA members will compete in National STAR Events, take part in unique leadership trainings, gain recognition for participation in FCCLA programs, help elect the 2026-2027 National Executive Council, and enjoy tours, social events, and opportunities to make memories that last a lifetime!

Please review and RSVP to events in the Oregon FCCLA Events tab for more details on events, deadlines, locations, and instructions for activities in our TeachCTSO platform. Our public facing calendar is located here: https://oregonfccla.org/calendar/

MEMBERSHIP

OREGON
STATE ASSOCIATION

Since 1945, students and their advisers have focused on better supporting their families, careers, and communities by taking part in FCCLA.

Increasing membership is a top priority this year. With that as a goal, the Oregon FCCLA State Officers invite you to join with them as they continue to utilize the 3 R's of Membership! We encourage you to Recruit, Retain and Recognize your members. We are encouraging members to scout out their school to find new members and reach our state membership goal. Please spread the word about this amazing organization and help others take part in the benefits FCCLA has to offer!

Chapter Membership

To be considered an active FCCLA chapter, all chapters are required to register 12 members and 1 adviser on their affiliation roster. Those chapters that do not have 12 members registered will still be allowed to affiliate but have to pay for 12 members regardless per National FCCLA and Oregon policy. If you have any questions, please contact state staff.

Affiliation Dues and Payment

National FCCLA affiliation dues are $9 per member/adviser and Oregon FCCLA affiliation dues are $11 per member for a total of $20 per member. Adviser dues are $10 per adviser in Oregon. The affiliation dues provide access to National FCCLA communications, National Programs, leadership conferences, competitive events, and exclusive membership promotions. Payments must be received at the National Office for chapters to be considered an active chapter (POs are not payment!).

Oregon does participate in the National FCCLA Membership Packages,. You can find additional information on what is offered as part of these packages on the national website: https://fcclainc.org/join/chapter-affiliation/rates-and-packages.

- Up to 25 members: $395 for national, $275 for state; Total $670 (regular price per student after 25)
- Unlimited Package: $775 for national, $825 for state; Total $1,600
- Middle School Package: $395 for national, $300 for state; Total $695
- Urban Package: $5,000/school district + $5,500 for state; Total $10,500

MEMBERSHIP

Affiliation Process

The membership affiliation system will be the same as previous years. To register your chapter, visit https://affiliation.registermychapter.com/fccla# . (You can also find the link by going to the national website, fcclainc.org, and clicking the login button in the top ribbon).

Advisers can find resources for the affiliation portal including a step-by-step guide on the national website as well as a member affiliation information form. https://fcclainc.org/join/chapter-affiliation

If you have any questions on the affiliation system, please email hello@oregonfccla.org.

Membership Types

Level 1 – through grade 8
Level 2 – grades 9-10
Level 3 – grades 11-12

NATIONAL PROGRAMS

FCCLA national programs were developed to build and strengthen students' leadership skills.

Career Connection
The FCCLA Career Connection national peer education program helps members discover their career path in four units: My Skills, My Life, My Career, and My Path.

Community Service
Community Service features three units that help guide young people to learn about themselves so they can learn, lead, and serve others.

Families Acting for Community Traffic Safety (FACTS)
FACTS is a national peer education program where members create projects that strive to save lives through personal, vehicle, and road safety.

Families First
Families First is a national peer education program through which youth gain a better understanding of how families work and learn skills to become strong family members.

Financial Fitness
Financial Fitness is a national peer education program involving youth teaching one another how to earn, spend, save, and protect money wisely.

Power of One
Power of One helps students find and use their personal power. Members set their own goals, work to achieve them, and enjoy the results.

Stand Up
FCCLA's Stand Up program guides members to improve the quality of life in their communities through assessment, education, and advocacy, using their voice to create change.

Student Body
The Student Body program helps members learn to make informed, responsible choices for their physical and mental health while also providing opportunities to teach others.

COMPETITIVE EVENTS

Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) offers various competitive events to students that provide opportunities to advance their career and college readiness skills.

STAR Events (Students Taking Action with Recognition) recognize members for proficiency and achievement in chapter and individual projects, leadership skills, and career preparation. STAR Events offer individual skill development and application of learning through cooperative, individualized, and competitive activities.

Online STAR Events focus on integrating Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) content through digital delivery. The following events also have an online preliminary round of competition at the national level

2026-2027 Competitive Events Guide is available in the National FCCLA affiliation portal. Please review the guidelines carefully with your students as you prepare for competition. The guide will be released on September 1, 2027 by National FCCLA.

Where do I find STAR Event Resources and Scenarios? The STAR Events Resources page (https://fcclainc.org/compete/star-events) contains general resources for STAR Events. Additional resources can be found in the competitive events guide and within the affiliation portal under Resources and Competitive Events. It is important that members use the current year's (2026-27) scenario or topic when preparing for STAR Events. When in doubt, email hello@oregonfccla.org with your questions.

Challenge Tests provide opportunities for FCCLA Members to demonstrate college- and career-readiness skills in Family and Consumer Sciences and related occupations. Members will demonstrate skills learned in FCS courses and through their involvement in FCCLA by taking one of many challenge tests covering state and national FCS standards. For more information visit: https://fcclainc.org/compete/competitive-events/fccla-challenge-tests-presented-g-w-publisher

OREGON STATE ASSOCIATION

Skill Demonstration Events provide opportunities for FCCLA members to demonstrate college- and career-readiness skills in Family and Consumer Sciences and related occupations. Members will use event criteria to demonstrate skills learned in their FCS courses and through their involvement in FCCLA. FCCLA OPENING CEREMONY

President:
Gives a rap with the gavel signaling the officers and members to stand and says: "We are members of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. Our mission is to promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences education."

Officers:
"Focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner and community leader, members develop skills for life through character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communication, practical knowledge and career preparation."

Members:
"As we work toward the accomplishment of our goals, we learn cooperation, take responsibility, develop leadership and give service."

President:
"This meeting of the _____ Chapter of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is now in session. You may be seated."

FCCLA CLOSING CEREMONY

President:
"Members, please stand."

"FCCLA members, we are challenged to accept the responsibility of making decisions that affect our lives today and the world tomorrow. Let us repeat our Creed."

Members:
[Repeat Creed]

CREED:
We are the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. We face the future with warm courage and high hope.
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking old and precious values. For we are the builders of homes,
Homes for America's future,
Homes where living will be the expression of everything that is good and fair, Homes where truth and love and security and faith will be realities, not dreams. We are the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America.
We face the future with warm courage and high hope.

President:
"This meeting of the _____ Chapter of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is now adjourned." [Rap gavel once.]
